GEORGETOWN AND ITS AFFAIRS.

GEORGETOWN, August 11-12 m. At the Methodist Episcopal Church yester-day morning there was a large audience—every class of our community appeared to be repre-sented, and all appeared anxious to hear the to subvert morality and religion, and concluded by administering some advice to editors, and a pretty caustic reprimand to the corps reportorial, for blowing hot and cold with the same breath.

The usual peace and quiet of the eastern part of Bridge street was on yesterday inter rupted by one of the most disgusting of all exhibitions, a man-fight, between two individuals, one by the name of Berry, from Washington, and the other named Hilton, of Georgetown Berry I understand was much hurt, being stamped several times in the face by his antagonist.

We were visited on Saturday night by drenching rain, accompanied by much thunder and lightning. Our streets were for an hour or more, in many places, completely flooded with water, which thoroughly swept from every alley and gutter every thing offensive. The atmo sphere ever since has been delightfully pleasant I hear of no damage being done.

Owing to the blowing out of one of the locks at the Great Falls, there has been no arrivals by canal since last Friday. It will be thoroughly repaired by 2 o'clock to-day, when boats will again be able to pass and repass. The break near Williamsport has been fully repaired. A large number of boats are expected be tween this and Thursday.

A large company left our town this morning for the Camp Meeting which commences in Fairfax this morning.

of April last, and seen me prostrated on my bed, useless in all my limbs, you can appreciate nearly as well as my-self the prompt relief I received from Dr. Hampton's Tincture, and I am positive had it not been for your strong and forcible recommendations I should still have been in bed.

It is really a pity this specific should not be approved by medical men, and like all patent drugs it should suffer the imputation the public generally give to such preparations. I myself, who was always opposed to a patented specific, took this medicine with reluctance, and without confidence in it, and it was only through your disinterested, friendly recommendations, and my critical situation, that induced me to try this really beneficial Vegetable Tincture.

You may inform Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray that they are at liberty to make use of my name in the support of the good effects of Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, as it has cured me, in five weeks, of a chronic Inflammatory Rheumatism, contracted under tropical climates, and of seven year's periodical duration. I have only used three bottles, and find that even the deformed parts of my hands are fast returning to their former natural appearance.

of my hands are last returning to their returns appearance.

I have been under the treatment of several physicians in London and Paris, without any apparent benefit; also, while in New York, having tried the Thompsonian and Homospathic remedies, after having been tormented with galvanic batteries, cold and aromatic baths, and hundreds of internal and external medicines, all to no effect. I am, so far, cured by this Hampton's Vegetable Tincture only. Therefore, my dear sir, accept of the assurance of my gratitude, and believe me your well-wisher.

WONDERFUL CURE OF HEREDITARY SCROFULA!
This certificate is from the pen of a gentleman whose name appears on the journal of Congress—one who is extensively and favorably known:

It affords me pleasure to state that Dr. Jesse Hampton's Tincture has effected a most extraordinary cure of my slave boy Albert. The patient was three years old, and had the Scrofula—(his father is scrofulous.) The boy was a moving mass of sores from head to foot; the upper lids of the eyes were much swollen, and turned inside out, exhibiting horrible mattering ulcers, that protruded over the cye-ball so as to produce blindness. It is strange, yet true, this child—that I felt resigned to see die as a relief from suffering—has been restored to health under the treatment of Dr. Hampton.

From the Republic.

The Case of John Day-A Verdict. It will be recollected that the indictment upo promised discourse of the pastor upon theatrical amusements.

After reading for his morning lesson from the 15th to the 20th chapter of Job, inclusive, he announced as his text—the Theatre. He appeared fully to understand his subject in all its ramifications, and discussed it in a masterly manner, citing, as he went along, many authors of note, both from Christian and Pagan, to prove that the tendency of such amusements is tween two of her ribs, causing her death, &c. The trial, it is known, occupied two weeks-the court sitting, on an average, seven hours From the fourth instant, when the case wa given to the jury, until the ninth, the utmost anxiety was manifested on the part of the com-munity to learn the result of their deliberations. The court met on Saturday morning at ten o'clock; but the jury, according to the report which was made to the Judge, being "as far off as ever from making a verdict," an adjournment took place until six o'clock in the evening. In the mean time, however, the jury agreed upon a verdict; and on the reopening of the court at the last-named hour the Judge sent for the prisoner, who a short time after-wards entered, in the custody of Mr. Wright, the jailer, and officer Coxe.

There were present the District Attorney and Mr. Morgan, (one of the counsel for the prisoner,) and not more than twenty persons a spectators.

The jury came down from their chamber, in which they had been confined for five days and nights, and took their seats. We never saw men with more solemn countenances, which indicated the nature of the verdict upon which they had agreed. The prisoner in the dock was evidently impressed with the scene before him, and seemed to anticipate the awful verdict! The profound silence was broken by the clerk, who called the roll, and the jurors an swered to their names, as follows: Notley L Adams, Edmund Bradford, Samuel Wardell John B. Scrivener, Charles Mann, John A. Ruff, Eugene Laporte, Charles Turner, Thomas J. Williams, Charles F. Lowrey, Elijah P. Tay lor, and Lewis Wright.

The Clerk .- Gentlemen, have you agreed upor your verdict? Mr. Wardell, the foreman, (in a tremulous tone.)—We have.

The Clerk.—Stand up, John Day. Gentlemen, look upon the prisoner at the bar. Do you find him guilty as indicted, or not guilty?
Mr. Wardell.—Guilty.
The Clerk.—Gentlemen of the jury, hearken to the verdict. Your foreman says that you find John Day, the prisoner at the bar, guilty as indicted, and so you all say. The verdict was then recorded.

The prisoner sat down, much agitated, more so than on any former occasion. The Court .- Gentlemen of the jury, you are discharged, finally.

Mr. Morgan moved that a new trial be granted to the prisoner. He would not now state the grounds, but would file the reasons hereafter And he embraced the opportunity to remark that the motion was not made on frivolous grounds; and that, when the reasons shall be placed on record, there would not be the slight est doubt that it would appear to the satisfac-tion of every man that a new trial should be granted. This was all he had now to say.

The Court observed that the reasons ough o be filed at an early day, so that the District Attorney might have an opportunity of seeing

An understanding was then entered into that Mr. Morgan should file his reasons and affidavits within four days, and that the District At torney should have until Monday next to pre pare to meet them.

The Court returned the thanks of the cour and the country to the jury for their attention to the subjects confided to them during the term; and Mr. Fendall expressed his regret that circumstances had required their confinement for so long a time. We learn that the reason for Mr. Morgan's motion for a new trial is, that Mr. N. L.

Adams is represented to have expressed a de cided opinion adverse to the prisoner before he was sworn as a juror. The prisoner was remanded and placed in ons, with a strong guard over him.

The court adjourned until the twentieth

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE,

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS. BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

Owing the nacions of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet." the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

following is their list, viz: their list, vie:
THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW,
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

The Westminster Review, and Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazing.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical; "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Ederal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesistical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Br. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretofer issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, imme-of both, as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fue rimite of the Edinburgh edition.

TREMS:

For any one of the four Reviews, $3 00 per annum. For any two, For any three, For all four of the Reviews, For Blackwood's Magazine, 3 00 For Blackwood and three Reviews, 9 00 For Blackwood and four Reviews, 10 00 of Geology, Massachusetts.

Amherst College, Dec. 25, 1848.

Mr. Robert Sears—Dear Sir: I have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much interest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the research it must have cost you to obtain so many fine illustrations, while you have an setive superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans. to follow your plans.

Respectfully and sincerely, your obliged servant,

EDWARD HITCHOOCK.

Respectfully and sineerely, your obliged servant, EDWARD HITCHCOCK.

* The works alluded to as having been examined and recommended, are as follows: A new and popular Pictorial Description of the United States, Pictorial History of the American Revolution, Scenes and Sketches of Continental Europe, Description of Great Britain and Ireland, Pictorial Family Annual, Treasury of Knowledge, Information for the People, The Family Instructor, Pictorial Sunday Book, Bible Biography, Bible History, and second series of The Wonders of the World.

Gentlemen of respectability and of good address wanted to sell the above popular Pictorial Works. Full particulars of the principles and profits of the Agency will be given on application either personally or by letter. The postage must in all cases be paid.

This well known and extensive establishment invites Merchants, Manusheturers, and Bankers, to an investigation of its system, and gratuitous test of its records of the standing and responsibility c: traders in the U. States.

Our increased patronage has enabled us, during the past year, to open offices in Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, and New Orleans; these, in connection with our long established offices in Boston, New York, and Baltimore, enable us to offer facilities and advantages which time and experience alone could accumulate, and which we believe are unequalled.

We are prepared to make collections in any of the States, Territories, Canada, England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Germany, and in any commercial port of the world, and will pay particular attention to old and doubtful debts, in the collection of which class we have extraordinary facilities, and have been unusually successful.
